Canadian Community Health Survey, 2001: Cycle 1.1, General File (CCHS 2001: Cycle 1.1, General File)

Enquête sur la santé dans les collectivités canadiennes, 2001: Cycle 1.1

Overview
Type	Canadian Community Health Survey
Identification	cchs-82M0013-E-2001-c1-1-general-file
Version	Version: 1 Notes Data and codebook replaced Nov. 2003. Correction made to sample weight for British Columbia.
Series	The primary objectives of the CCHS are to: - provide timely, reliable, cross-sectional estimates of health determinants, health status and health system utilization across Canada - gather data at the sub-provincial levels of geography - create a flexible survey instrument that: meets specific health region data gaps, develops focused survey content for key data, deals with emerging health and health care issues as they arise.
Abstract The Canadian Community Health Survey (CCHS) is a cross-sectional survey that collects information related to health status, health care utilization and health determinants for the Canadian population. The CCHS operates on a two-year collection cycle. The first year of the survey cycle .1 is a large sample, general population health survey, designed to provide reliable estimates at the health region level. The second year of the survey cycle.2 is a smaller survey designed to provide provincial level results on specific focused health topics. This Microdata File contains data collected in the first year of collection for the CCHS (Cycle 1.1). Information was collected between September 2000 and November 2001, for 136 health regions, covering all provinces and territories. The CCHS (Cycle 1.1) collects responses from persons aged 12 or older, living in private occupied dwellings. Excluded from the sampling frame are individuals living on Indian Reserves and on Crown Lands, institutional residents, full-time members of the Canadian Armed Forces, and residents of certain remote regions.
Kind of Data	Cross-sectional Survey
Unit of Analysis	Individual

Scope & Coverage
Keywords	Activities, Acupuncturist, Admission, Age, Alcohol, Alternative health care, Blood, Breast feeding, Care, Check-up, Chiropractor, Clinic, Consultation, Consumption, Dentist, Diabetes, Disability, Doctor, Exercise, Faith, Health, Health care, Health region, Heart disease, Home care, Homeopath, Illness, Immigrant, Injury, Job, Language, Marital status, Massage therapist, Medication, Nurse, Physical, Pregnancy, Racial origin, Restrictions, Smoking, Strain, Stress, Stroke, Suicide, Support, Treatment, Weight
Time Period(s)	2000-2001
Countries	Canada
Geographic Coverage Canada, Provinces, Territories, Health Regions
Universe Included: Individuals aged 12 or older who are living in private dwellings. Excluded: Individuals living on Indian Reserves and on Crown Lands, institutional residents, full-time members of the Canadian Armed Forces, and residents of certain remote regions.

Sampling
Sampling Procedure Sample
Weighting WTSAM = Sampling weight - pumf weight Each respondent was assigned a weight to represent his or her contribution to the total population. The weight was used to derive estimates for all characteristics surveyed. Taking into account the sample design, estimates were produced from the sample data by employing estimation techniques from survey sampling theory. Because the CCHS used two overlapping sampling frames with separate sample designs, two weighting strategies with various adjustments were processed side-by-side and integrated at a certain point with a dual-frame technique. The integrated weights were then calibrated to population projections using a onedimensional post-stratification adjustment of 10 age/sex post-strata (that is, the age groups 12 to 19, 20 to 29, 30 to 44, 45 to 64 and 65 or older for each sex) within each province. Before the integration and calibration adjustments, key factors determined the weighting strategy for the CCHS data collected during the first half of cycle 1.1. For the area frame sample units, these factors included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • use of a stratified, multistage design, involving probability sampling proportional to size at all stages except the final stage, when systematic sampling of dwellings was used; • monthly stabilization of sampled dwellings; • use of only half of the full, pre-defined cycle 1.1 sample; • household-level non-response; • selection of one or two respondents, based on household composition; • person-level non-response. For the RDD frame sampling units, some of the determining factors were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • use of simple random sampling of telephone numbers within working banks of each RDD stratum; • use of only six monthly RDD samples; • household-level non-response; • households not included in the frame because of no telephone line; • selection of only one person per household; • person-level non-response.

Data Collection
Data Collection Dates	start 2000-09-05 end 2001-11
Time Period(s)	start 2000-09-05 end 2001-11
Data Collection Mode	Questionnaire using computer-assisted interviewing

Data Processing & Appraisal
Estimates of Sampling Error The survey produces estimates based on information collected from a sample of individuals. Sampling error is the error attributed to studying a fraction of the population rather than carrying out a complete census under the same general conditions (questionnaire, interviewers, processing methods, etc.). The extent of this error depends on factors such as sample size, the variability of the characteristic of interest, sample design and estimation method. Because of the complexity of the sample design, sampling error for CCHS estimates was calculated using the bootstrap resampling technique.

Version 2 Data replaced Nov. 2003. Correction made to sample weight for British Columbia. It should be noted that the 'Public Use' microdata files described differ in a number of important respects from the survey 'master' files held by Statistics Canada. These differences are the result of actions taken to protect the anonymity of individual survey respondents. Protection of respondents is assured through suppression of individual values, variable grouping, and variable capping. Users requiring access to information excluded from the microdata files have three options: to purchase custom tabulations, use one of the Research Data Centres, or use the remote access option.
